

About AGIC

The Association for Globalization, Innovation and Cooperation (AGIC) is an international organization we advocate to better strengthen global division of labor, interoperability and cooperation in the current challenges.

The benefits of AGIC Cooperator

AGIC is committed to promoting innovation centered globalization and cooperation actions and solutions, aiming to build global influence. AGIC collaborates with talented individuals and friendly organizations from various countries in different fields, such as local governments, experts and scholars, business leaders, research entrepreneurs, etc., to support globalization and cooperation development.

AGIC Action

AGIC will focus on providing reference cases for globalization, innovation and cooperation through organizing AGIC summit international forums and incubating AGIC projects.

